History

APUSH - On Monday 4/13, photos of the Chapter 33 Focus Questions and IDs are due. Between Monday and Sunday, students should complete the lesson on Comparison in Period 7, as well as the Period 7 Unit Test on Khan Academy.

Sociology - Last week, I chose not to post the questions, in order to give students a chance to catch up. This week we will move forward with what I planned last week. Please continue reading Barbra Ehrenreich's Nickel and Dimed. This week you will be reading the second part of Chapter 2: Scrubbing in Maine pages 51 - 68. Complete the Google Form assignment consisting of a series of focus questions. If your answers aren't satisfactory (complete sentences, with text-based evidence, that answer the entire question) I will be reaching out to you to fix your responses before I assign a score of 100. You should try your best to have your Google Form submitted by Friday night, just in case you need to revise your responses. All students should have this completed by 4/19 at 11:59pm.

Film

Advanced Film Studies - Hi everyone! By now we should all be finishing up Stephen King's The Mist. There will be a test on the novel posted to google classroom for Monday. For Tuesday and Wednesday you are expected to watch the film adaptation. A link is provided in google classroom for you to screen it via YouTube if you don't have access to the film otherwise. There will be a journal question posted on Thursday for you to respond to and Friday we will plan to meet via Google Meet to have a class discussion. If you are unable to meet, that is okay - I will have an alternative assignment for you.

Intro to Film Studies - This week we continue focusing on major directors in Hollywood. This week we are taking a look at Ridley Scott. For Monday you are to go through the PowerPoint posted on Ridley Scott and his Film Alien. Tuesday there will be an informal journal prompt to respond to. Wednesday and Thursday you will screen Alien (link posted on google classroom). And then Friday there will be a longer writing prompt to respond to about the film itself.
